

THE DAILY APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 22, 1857.

SPAKING APPOINTMENTS.

The candidates for Senator and Speaker will address their citizens, and on Monday night at Exchange Building, and on Tuesday night at the basement of the Second Baptist Church, corner of Beale and Dicko streets, if the latter building can be obtained. The appointment at Rosedale has been withdrawn on account of the appointment for Gov. Johnson at the same day—Friday next.

MISSED.

The first and second volumes of the Weekly Appeal are missing from our offices. They are to me one else. I am sorry about it, and am sending them to you as a great favor by returning them.

All persons are requested not to purchase papers from our regular carriers, as they are not authorized to sell them. An observance of this request will greatly oblige the publishers.

The officers of the steamer Flying Cloud have our thanks for late New Orleans papers.

Hon. J. W. MATTHEWS, of Mississippi, will have the pleasure of meeting yesterday in the city.

We are indebted to Mr. ROBERTS, clerk of the Steamer Editor, for a full file of late St. Louis papers.

We are indebted to Mr. Wm. STEWART, of the Adams Express Company, for late Philadelphia papers.

We had several pleasant showers yesterday, which contributed much to cooling the atmosphere. The river continues to recede, slowly, and all the upper streams are falling. Nothing of interest transpired at the landing yesterday.

DEPUTY COUNTY, MISS.—At a meeting of the Democracy of Deputé County, Miss., on Monday, July 20th, Maj. S. S. OLIVER was nominated for the Senate. MURKIN JONES was nominated to fill the vacancy in the House of Representatives by the resignation of Col. HARVEY. Also Gen. C. G. NEALE, A. S. STEWART, and THOS. A. LEWIS for the Legislature.

KENTUCKY TO RALEIGH.—Those who desire to attend the speaking at Raleigh next Friday, can take the cars in the morning at 7 o'clock, and they will be halted at the nearest point to the grounds selected for the speaking. Such an evening as this will be a great attraction to the Mayor, in relation to the cost of fare, as well as in width, and if all who go expect to be accommodated, the distance will be but short and can easily walk. We learn that Gov. JONES will not speak in this city, that all who desire to hear him must attend at Raleigh. He will speak Saturday, and at Party on Monday. Let the people turn out and hear him.

LIFE INSURANCE.—We learned yesterday, that some five years since, Mr. T. H. COOPER, of this city, had $5,000.00 upon his life in the International Life Insurance Company of London, of which Captain MADAM is agent in this city. The Captain informed us that on Monday he addressed a letter to Mrs. DOOLEY, desiring her to furnish him with the proper papers. We are glad to learn that his family are in good condition, and are still here.

A petition from Mr. DOOLEY, after his son, Mr. DOOLEY, Jr., had left his wife in indigent circumstances, was as soon as the property at evidence of death reaches this city the money will be transmitted to Mrs. D.

Meeting of the City Council.

A regular meeting of the City Council and Aldermen was held yesterday afternoon. Present—Mayor Bough, Alderman WOODWARD, (deceased) HUGHES, Erwin, Street, and Loring, Frazee, Hamlin, Faulkner, Martin and Copeland.

Absent—Aldermen Jones and Hill.

The proceedings of a special meeting held on the 2d inst., and a regular meeting held on the 7th inst., were read and adopted. A message from the Mayor was read, voting an ordinance passed by the Board, defining the fine limits of the city, for the consideration of the Board.

A resolution accompanying the message from the Mayor, was also read, defining the fine limits of the city, for the consideration of the Board.

Alderman HUGHES offered a resolution that the vote which was passed was not a unanimous one—that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.

On a vote being taken, the Mayor's suggestion defining the fine limits was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman COPELAND, from the Improvement Committee, to whom was referred the opening of Washington street, offered a resolution that the same be opened, at an expense of not more than $1,500. Adopted.

Alderman HUGHES, from the same Committee, reported that the Committee had been informed that the road had been opened with such unanimity by the Aldermen, and concluded by moving that the subject be referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Alderman LOUDON stated that the vote by which the ordinance was passed was not unanimous—one that three members voted against it.